

Japanese Language Course

Presented by the Centre for Japanese Studies, University of Pretoria

Course dates: 9 March–22 June 2017
Venue: HPC Auditorium

Class times: Thursday evenings from 18:00 to 20:00

From the delicacies of eating sushi and drinking tea, to the legends of brave samurais and beautiful geishas – whether you are looking to learn Japanese for the purpose of business, travel or personal use – the Japanese Language Course will provide you with the practical knowledge and skills you need to communicate efficiently in this exotic language. Presented throughout structured modules, you can either gain a basic understanding of the language or continue to broaden your understanding of the language and culture with more advanced training.

With the focus on the practical use of the language and cultural awareness, you will learn the Japanese characters – the hiragana and katakana – for writing and reading, with the addition of approximately 30 Chinese characters (kanjis). You will also go on to develop basic communication skills in listening, speaking, reading and writing in Japanese through various material and activities such as origami and wearing yukata that will expose you to both traditional and contemporary Japanese cultures and societies.
